Caedmon's Hymn

(Caedmon's Hymn was composed by a monk around the year 775-825. It is one of the oldest surviving English poems.)

Now we must praise the Ruler of Heaven
The might of the Lord and His purpose of mind,
The work of the Glorious Father;
for He, God Eternal, established each wonder,
He, Holy Creator, first fashioned the heavens
As a roof for the children of earth.
And then our guardian, the Everlasting Lord,
Adorned this middle-earth* for men.

*a realm situated between Heaven and Hell
